FLOOR DEBATE

March 16, 2004 LB 973

would you like to close? Excuse me, Senator Janssen, it's your...

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Only to say that this is something that could happen anywhere in the state. It's unfortunate it did happen in this particular county. And the people should have the right which it addresses, to go back and ask for special valuation at a later date also. So they both work together and each one of those parcels of land, there were 900 of them, will have their so-called day in court to ask for a special valuation, if the county board does agree with that. With that, that takes care of the amendment, and it could happen anywhere. Unfortunately, it happened in one of my counties, so I ask for your adoption of the amendment.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you, Senator Janssen. We'll now proceed to vote on AM3032 by Senator Janssen. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays on the adoption of Senator Janssen's amendment to the committee amendments, Mr. President.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: The amendment is adopted. Any further discussion on AM2384, Revenue Committee? Senator Erdman.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Legislature. I wonder if Senator Connealy would yield to a couple of questions.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Senator Connealy.

SENATOR CONNEALY: Yes.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Senator Connealy, as I read the explanation of this amendment, I recognize that there are a number of bills that are amended or proposed to be amended into LB 973, and I just had a couple of questions in reviewing the language and looking on page 12 of the committee amendment. I'm on line 27. There is a...there's language that refers to, "If the property is real property, a description of each parcel shall be provided." When we're talking about a description, is it
